DR. JAMES H. PHILLIPS, Presiding Minister

Organ—Andante from Sonata V — Mendelssohn
Andante from Sonata IV — Mendelssohn

Call to Worship—Holy, Holy, Holy (Kedushah) — Max Spicker

Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord, the Lord of hosts,
The heav'ns and the earth are full of His glory.

Hymn—Awake, My Soul, Stretch Every Nerve (Christmas)
Arr. from G. F. Handel

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Tenor Solo—If With All Your Hearts from "Elijah"
Mendelssohn

Dr. C. H. Richards, Jr.

Ye people, rend your hearts, and not your garments;
For your transgressions the Prophet Elijah hath sealed the Heavens
Through the word of God. I therefore say to ye,
Forsake your idols, return to God; for He is slow to anger,
And merciful, and kind, and gracious, and repenteth Him of the evil.
"If with all your hearts ye truly seek me, ye shall ever surely find me."
Thus saith our God! Oh! that I knew where I might find Him,
That I might even come before His presence!

Hymn—More Love to Thee (More Love to Thee) — Doane

Scripture—Jeremiah 29:1-15

Offertory Anthem—Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee
Beethoven-Sanders

Joyful, joyful, we adore Thee, God of glory, God of love;
Hearts unfold like flow'rs before Thee Praising Thee their sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; Drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, Fill us with the light of day.
All Thy works with joy surround Thee, Earth and heav'ns reflect Thy rays,
Stars and angels sing around Thee, Centre of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Blooming meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, Call us to rejoice in Thee.
Thou art giving and forgiving, Ever blessing, ever blest,
Well-spring of the joy of loving, Ocean depth of happy rest!
Thou our Father, Christ our Brother, All who live in love are Thine:
Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the joy divine.
Mortals join the mighty chorus, Which the morning stars began,
Father love is reigning o'er us, Brother love binds man to man.
Ever singing march we onward, Victors in the midst of strife;
Joyful music lifts us sunward In the triumph song of life.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"If You Would Find God" — Dr. Harold A. Bosley
Preacher to the University

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You — Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you,
The Lord lift His countenance upon you; and give you peace,
The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. Amen.

Now Thank We All Our God
O God Thou Faithful God
Rejoice Greatly, O My Soul

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer — Sibelius-Carroll

Anthem—Gloria in Excelsis from "Twelfth Mass" — Mozart

Glorious is Thy name, Almighty Lord; all the angels stand round Thy Throne,
Let all nations bow before Thee, and declare Thy wondrous works.
We praise Thee, we give thanks to Thee, we adore Thee, we glorify Thee.
Lord, we adore Thee, we bless Thee; Lord, we thank Thee for Thy great glory.
Heav'n is Thy throne, and earth is Thy footstool. Thou art King over all the world.
Glorious is Thy name, O Lord. Blessing and honor be to God, for ever and ever.

Thou Son of God—Jesu Christ,—our Lord.
Now are we come to the sun's hour of rest; the lights of ev'ning around us shine;
We hymn the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Holy Ones, divine!
Most worthy Thou at all times to be sung with undefiled tongue,
O Son of God! Source of life alone;
Therefore in all the world, Thy glories, Lord, they own!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

Whate'er the tasks and perils be, And trials sore that trouble me.
Give me the peace that faith will give, A peace that shows me how to live
Above the loud and mighty roar Of winds and waves upon life's shore.
Give me the peace.
Give me the hope that faith bestows, A hope that triumphs thro' all woes,
To see the dawning of the hour When all shall recognize thy pow'r.
Give me a faith that ever grows In spite of clouds and cruel foes;

ORGAN RECITAL

There will be an organ recital in the Duke University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, November 6, at 4:00 o'clock. This will be the first recital of the regular series by Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist.

The complete program follows:

Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707) Prelude, Fugue and Chaconne in C major

This work often has been compared with the C Major Prelude and Fugue of Bach. We know that Bach drew much inspiration from the works of Buxtehude. The North German style of writing presented a great variety of rhythm and form in various movements because the organs of this period did not permit much change of registration. In such early works, the aim is to achieve clarity of tone and interesting rhythmic content.

Henry Purcell (1659-1695) Aria from "Dido and Aeneas"

The tragic aria "When I am Laid in Earth," sung by Dido in the opera Dido and Aeneas, is famous for its poignant melody. Viola Lang has arranged this solo for organ.

Henry Purcell Trumpet Voluntary

This work was written by Purcell when he was organist at Westminster Abbey. It has been revised and edited by Mr. E. Power Biggs.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) In Dulci Jubilo

This melody of a sacred Christmas herceuse of the Middle Ages was used by Bach in various forms. We hear it today in a simple setting in trio form.

Robert Schumann (1810-1856) Sketch in A minor

Schumann left two sets of Sketches and Studies for the pedal piano or organ. These often are used as program pieces. The one in A minor is an attractive scherzo.

César Franck (1822-1890) Prelude, Fugue and Variation

It is believed that Franck originally wrote this work for two pianos, then transcribed it for organ. It is a charming, romantic piece and its short themes and many nuances are in wide contrast to the opening prelude and fugue by Buxtebude.

Olivier Messiaen ( ) Le Banquet Celeste

The eminent French organist and composer, Messiaen, was a special guest of Mr. Koussevitsky at Tanglewood this past summer. He has written expressive and imaginative music for the Catholic church. His music follows the impressionism of Debussy and Ravel. In The Celestial Banquet, Messiaen describes the elevation of the cup in the Catholic Mass of Holy Communion. The light, fluty pedals depict the ringing of the bell as the cup is elevated.

Johann Sebastian Bach Toccata and Fugue in D minor

The famous D minor Toccata and Fugue was written while Bach was the court organist at Weimar. This was during an early period of his life, when he was concerned more with the composition of grand virtuoso pieces than with religious music. Bach probably performed this number on many of his concert trips.

Evening performances at 8:10 that evening and 8:10 p.m. Friday, November 25, will follow.

Hailed by many critics as Eugene O'Neill's successor and condemned by others for his pessimistic themes and ruthless candor, Williams can claim two hits in "Menagerie" and "A Streetcar Named Desire," Pulitzer prize play now in its third year on Broadway.

The Duke Players have carried out Williams' feeling of unreality in setting, lighting, costuming and special effects, under new Technical Director Glen Wilson.

Boyd Blaydes will take the role made famous on Broadway by the late Laurette Taylor, the nagging mother who dreams of her long-dead days as a Southern belle. Newcomer Jo Reynolds will portray the daughter who refuses to face reality, withdrawing into the world of her collection of tiny glass animals.

Veteran actors Lawson Crowe and Tom Driver will take the remaining roles, Crowe playing the restless son and Driver the gentleman caller who injects a touch of the outside world.

Tickets for "The Glass Menagerie," $1.00 each, may be obtained by writing Duke Players, Box 4554, Duke Station, Durham, N. C., or, after Monday, November 21, by calling 112, Extension 484, from 2:00 till 5:00 p.m.

To see whe'r it were so or no,
Whether Christ were born or no, to set men free.
Masters, in this hall, Hear ye news today
Brought over sea, And ever you I pray,
Then to Bethlem town did the Shepherds go, and in a sorry place
Heard the oxen low.
Therein did they see a sweet and goodly May,
Upon the straw she lay.
And a little child On her arm had she

"Wot ye who this is?" Said the hinds to me.
Ox and ass him know—kneeling on their knee:
Wondrous joy had I—This little Babe to see.
This is Christ the Lord, Masters, he ye glad!
Christmas is come in, And no folk should be sad.

Puer Natus Est — Everett Titcomb

Call to Worship—Fanfare for Christmas Day — Martin Shaw
Gloria in Excelsis Deo.

Hymn—Joy to the World — Arr. from George F. Handel

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—I Wonder As I Wander — Appalachian Carol
Soloist, Dr. C. H. Richards, Jr., Tenor

I wonder as I wander, out under the sky,
How Jesus the Savior did come for to die,
For poor on'ry people like you and like I . . .
I wonder as I wander, out under the sky.

When Mary birthed Jesus, 'twas in a cow's stall,
With wise men and farmers and shepherds and all.
But high from God's heaven a star's light did fall,
And the promise of ages it then did recall.

If Jesus had wanted for any wee thing,
A star in the sky, or a bird on the wing,
Or all of God's angels in heav'n for to sing,
He surely could have it, 'cause he was the King.

Hymn—O Little Town of Bethlehem — Redner

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Christmas Eve — Hageman
Soloists
Mrs. George W. Jennings, Soprano
Mr. Charles R. Hance, Tenor

There was a gentle hostler (And blessed be his name!)
He open'd up the stable The night our Lady came.
Our Lady and Saint Joseph, He gave them food and bed,
And Jesus Christ has given him A glory round his head.

So let the gate swing open However poor the yard,
Lest weary people visit you And find their passage barred;
Unlatch the door at midnight And let your lantern's glow
Shine out to guide the traveler's feet To you across the snow.

There was a joyous hostler Who knelt on Christmas morn
Beside the radiant manger Wherein the Lord was born,
His heart was full of laughter, His soul was full of bliss
When Jesus, on His Mother's lap, Gave him His hand to kiss.

Unbar your heart this ev'ning And keep no stranger out,
Take from your soul's great portal The barrier of doubt.
To humble folk and weary Give hearty welcoming
Your breast shall be tomorrow The cradle of a King.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"Peace and Good Will" — Dr. Frank S. Hickman
Preacher to the University

The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. Amen.

Prayer of Confession and Consecration (Unison)

O Light of those who sit in darkness, Daystar of our peace and hope: the awful shadows of a world in strife make us conscious of the need we have for peace. With aching hearts and chastened spirits we come this Christmas-tide to ask thy forgiveness and invoke thy blessing. Drive back the gray shadows which hover over us and let thy guiding star once more direct our lives. Let our ears hear heavenly music above the whispers of doubt and cries of confusion. May we be messengers of Christmas joy, bearers of tidings of good will, generous sharers of what we have, and so make Christmas joy prevail in saddened hearts around us. Amen.

Lord of all being, throned afar, Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Centre and soul of ev'ry sphere, Yet to each loving heart bow near!
Sun of life, Thy quick'ning ray Sheds on our path the glow of day;
Star of our hope, Thy softened light Cheers the long watches of the night.
Our midnight is Thy smile withdrawn; Our noon-tide is Thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch, Thy mercy's sign; All, save the clouds of sin are Thine.
Lord of all life, below, above, Whose light is truth, Whose warmth is love,
Before Thy ever blazing throne We ask no lustre of our own.
Grant us Thy truth to make us free, And kindly hearts that yearn for Thee,
Till all Thy living altars claim One holy light, one heav'nly flame.
Amen.

To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till hreak of dawn.
The morning sun gives hirth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Offertory Anthem—O Lord God, Unto Whom Vengeance Belongeth Robert Baker

Soloist: Gordon Reed, Baritone

O Lord God, unto whom vengeance helongeth:
O God, show thyself.
Lift up thyself, thou Judge of the earth. Render a reward to the proud.
Lord, how long shall the wicked triumph? How long shall they utter and speak hard things?
They hreak in pieces thy people. They slay the widow and stranger: and murder the fatherless.
Yet they say, The Lord shall not see.
Man that is in honor and understandeth not is like the heasts that perish.
For when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.
For the fear of the Lord is the heginning of wisdom:
A good understanding have all they that do his commandments.
I will praise thee, O Lord. I will sing unto thee among the people.
Be thou exalted, O God; let thy glory he ahove all the earth.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all hlessings flow;

ORGAN RECITAL BY CARL WEINRICH

An organ recital of widespread interest will be presented at 4:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, February 5, in the Duke University Chapel by Carl Weinrich, distinguished concert organist and Director of Music, Princeton University Chapel, Princeton, N. J.

The complete program follows:

Prelude and Fugue in E major Luebeck

Vincent Luebeck was one of the group of late 17th century composers who contributed to the greatness of the North German School of organ composers. The Prelude and Fugue in E consists of several well-contrasted sections. The musical ideas are fresh and striking.

Chorale-Prelude on "How Brightly Shines the Morning Star" Buxtehude

Born in 1637, Buxtehude occupied a dominant place in the musical life of North Germany. The vesper services which he conducted on the Sundays before Christmas at the Church of St. Mary in Luebeck were famous. His music is expressive and dramatic.

Chorale-Preludes Bach

1. In Dulci Jubilo
2. Lord God, Now Open Wide Thy Heaven
3. A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

Prelude and Fugue in G major Bach

The Chorale-Preludes of Bach form one of the most unique collections of music in any form—as well as one of the greatest expressions of Christian art. The church-goer of the 18th century, hearing these pieces based on hymns familiar to him, would find in them a deep religious meaning. Famous in his day as a performer, as well as a composer, Bach wrote many virtuoso pieces for the organ, of which the Prelude and Fugue in G major is one of the most noteworthy.

Andante in F (for a mechanical organ) Mozart

Both Mozart and Haydn wrote a number of charming pieces for a small toy-like organ which was popular in the drawing rooms of the late 18th century. A clock mechanism furnished the power to operate the small bellows and to rotate a cylinder, which in turn caused the pipes to speak.

First Sonata in E flat minor Hindemith

I. Moderately fast—Lively
II. Very slow—Fantasy, free—With quiet motion

A number of important contemporary composers are writing for the organ—one of the most distinguished of these is Paul Hindemith. His three sonatas for organ are among the most important contributions to the literature during the past decade. These works have interesting and graceful rhythmical patterns, are light and clear in texture, and have attractive and expressive melodies.

Third Movement from "The Ascension" (Outburst of Joy from a Soul Before the Glory of Christ) Messiaen

Messiaen is regarded by many as the most promising of the younger French composers. In the piece played this afternoon, the two main rhythmic and melodic motives are announced at once—first on the manuals, and then in the pedals. These are repeated from time to time and finally combined. Interspersed are various subsidiary rhythmic fragments and cadenzas—giving the work a somewhat rhapsodic character.

DR. H. E. SPENCE, Presiding Minister

Organ—Gloria — Duprè
Antiphon III — Duprè
Meditation — Vierne

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer — Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud. Sun of my soul, I cry aloud
To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.
The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life (Germany) — Gardiner

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—The Great Awakening — Kramer-Barlow

A beggar stood at the House of God, At the sacred door one morn,
And the wind was sharp with winter's teeth And he shook in his rags forlorn;
The organ peal'd within the church a hymn of warmth and cheer,
And the beggar smiled as a beggar will who has no God to fear.
The rich man brush'd him rough aside, The toiler spake awhile,
The widow dropped her widow mite, The courtesan a smile.
The organ peal'd in thunderous praise, The saints on flowers trod,
And I look'd beneath the beggar's rags and there reveal'd stood God.
"Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

Hymn—Lord, Speak to Me, That I May Speak (Canonbury) — Schumann

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Great Is Jehovah — Schubert-Lichter
Soloist: Dwight Irwin, Tenor

Great is Jehovah, the Lord, The earth and the heavens bear witness to His might!
'Tis heard in the blasts of the storm, In the roar of the loud-thundering stream.
Great is Jehovah, the Lord, and mighty His pow'r.
'Tis heard in rustling leaves on the green forest branches, Seen in the fields rich with golden grain,

In flowers the fairest, blushing at dawn.
'Tis seen where stars strew the blue vault of heaven.
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's roll. And flames in the lightning's swift death-dealing flash.
Still clearer thy throbbing heart proclaims Jehovah's pow'r and might,
Still clearer thy heart to thee proclaims Jehovah's pow'r,
The Lord God Almighty.
When to heav'n thou dost pray, Imploring grace and compassion,
Great is Jehovah, the Lord!

ffertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Department of Alumni Affairs, Room 103 Union, maintains a record of all events being held on the Duke University campus. It is urgently requested that any group or organization, department or individual planning a meeting on the campus check the schedule to avoid conflicts. It is also urgently requested that any group or individual planning a meeting record the occasion, hour and place, in the engagement book of the Department of Alumni Affairs for the information of others planning meetings. This cooperation will enable the Department to publicize more effectively the campus activities through the Weekly Calendar.

During the past fall there have developed a number of conflicts because there was not sufficient information about scheduled meetings. The cooperation on the part of the University community will help to avoid this difficulty.

ORGAN RECITAL

There will be an organ recital in the University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, March 5, at 4:00 o'clock, by Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, assisted by Julia W. Mueller, violin, and Allan H. Bone, clarinet.

The complete program follows:

Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707) — Chaconne in E minor
Gigue Fugue in C

The chaconne is an old dance in triple time, the music of which is a series of variations over a ground bass. The theme does not necessarily remain in the bass throughout, but occasionally moves to other voices for variety and interest.

The Gigue Fugue of Buxtehude and the Gigue Fugue of Bach are perhaps the best known of the scherzo type. Many such lively fugues as this were written in the 17th century.

eorge Frederick Handel (1685-1759) Sonata II
Larghetto, Allegro

The two introductory movements from this Sonata in G minor, written originally for oboe, provide a satisfying vehicle for the closely related clarinet. The Larghetto, with its cantabile form, is a fine example of the Handelian operatic style, while the Allegro provides a sprightly contrasting movement.

Mr. Bone, clarinet

ohann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)
Concerto in E Major
Allegro, Adagio, Allegro assai

This concerto exposes two of the many facets of this great composer's personality. The first and third movements are exhuberant and virtuose in the Italian style. The second movement is profound and serene.

Mrs. Mueller, violin

ohann Sebastian Bach Fantasia in G minor

The Fantasia in G minor is dramatic in style and contains harmonic effects which anticipate procedures of the moderns. It is significant that it was written during Bach's residence at Weimar when he was Court Organist and not playing in a church.

eorge Frederick Handel Trio Sonata No. 6
Andante, Allegro, Largo, Allegro

Handel wrote this sonata for two violins and clavier. However, the oboe or clarinet was often substituted instead of a second violin, and the organ often took the place of the clavier accompaniment.

Mrs. Mueller, Mr. Bone

larcel Duprè (1886-) Vepres Du Commun
Antiphon 3, Magnificat 6

These short pieces are from a set of fifteen. The Antiphon 3 is lyric in style and in sharp contrast with the Magnificat, which forms the finale of the entire group. Duprè succeeded Widor as organist at Saint Sulpice, Paris.

arius Milhaud (1900-) Pastorale

Milhaud, who was born in France, is at present professor of music at Mills College, California.

ésar Franck (1822-1890) Pièce Heroïque

The Pièce Heroïque was written for the dedication of the organ in the Trocadero in Paris, 1878. It is martial in spirit, except for a short central section, and closes triumphantly with great chords played on full organ.

"Marco Millions" is a satire on the businessman of all ages. The plot takes place in the ancient and mystic Orient, and it shows the conflict between humanitarianism as expressed in the Eastern court of Kublai Khan and the one-track avariciousness of the Polo family of Venice. When these two ideals clash, the ensuing conflict has great emotional impact and brilliant humor which often borders on the burlesque. The many changes of scenery, the rich costumes, the unusual sound effects, and the high development of the play itself will give the audience one of the most entertaining nights ever to be had at Duke University.

Lord, in this hour of tumult, Lord, in this night of fears,
Keep open, oh, keep open My eyes, my heart, my ears.
Not blindly, not in hatred, Lord let me do my part;
Keep open, oh, keep open, dear Lord, My eyes, my mind, my heart!
Hear Thou my pleading, Hear Thou my prayer! Lord God.

Hymn—Majestic Sweetness Sits Enthron'd (Ortonville) Hastings

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—O Lord God, Unto Whom Vengeance Belongeth Baker

Soloist: Frank Stowers, Baritone

O Lord God, unto whom vengeance belongeth: O God, show thyself.
Lift up thyself, thou Judge of the earth: Render a reward to the proud.
Lord, how long shall the wicked triumph? How long shall they utter and speak hard things?
They break in pieces thy people. They slay the widow and stranger:
And murder the fatherless. Yet they say, The Lord shall not see.
Man that is in honor and understandeth not is like the beasts that perish.
For when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.
The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom:
A good understanding have all they that do his commandments.
I will praise thee, O Lord, I will sing unto thee among the people.
Be exalted, O God; let thy glory be above all the earth.

Reception of New Members

Offertory Anthem—Unfold, Ye Portals from "The Redemption" Gounod

Unfold, ye portals everlasting, With welcome receive Him ascending on high!
Behold the King of Glory! He mounts up through the sky,
Back to the heav'nly mansions hasting. Unfold, for lo, the King comes nigh.
But who is He, the King of Glory? He who Death overcame, the Lord in battle mighty.
Of hosts He is the Lord; of angels and of powers: The King of Glory is the King of the saints.
